Development Updates

■ Recent Updates

■ e-Mail to non-registered users

■ Upcoming

■ Report Updates

- Finer grain detail on Hazardous Waste, Hazardous Material, and Non-Hazardous Waste lines in the Inspectors and Manifest summary reports

■ State Corrections Requests

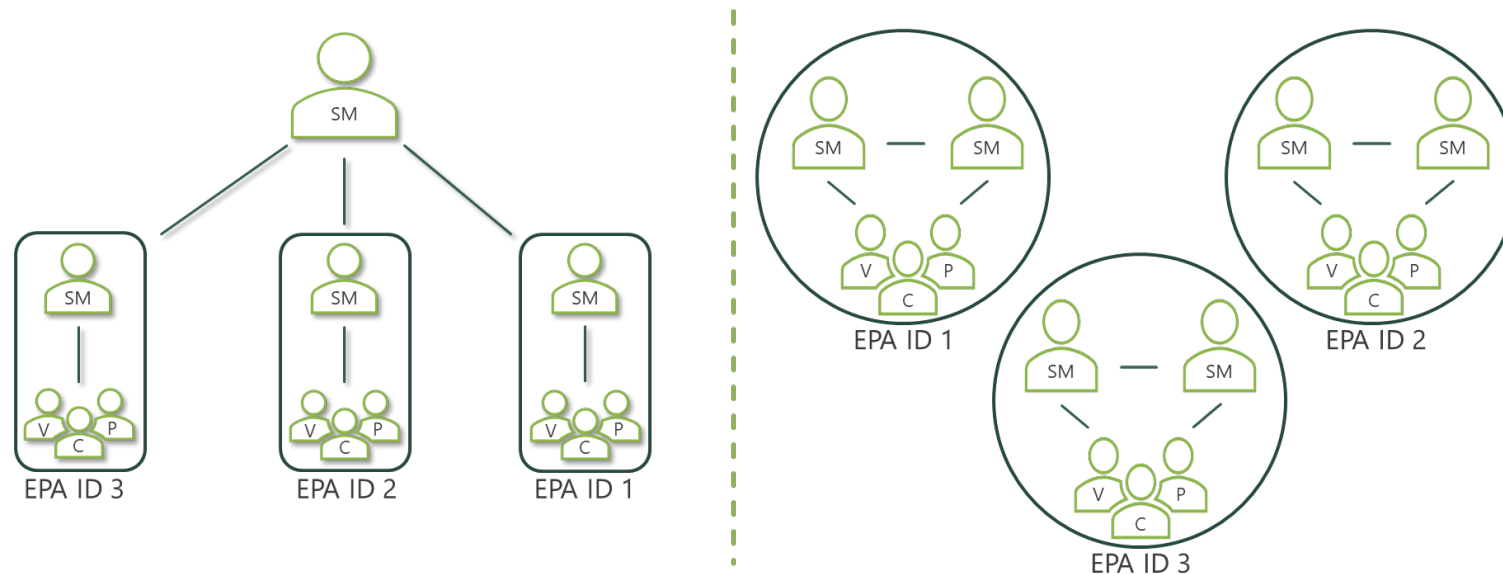

- The development team is currently working on a user requested feature that will allow for a State or EPA region to in addition to making corrections, also request industry users on the manifest make those corrections and even register to make those corrections.

Reminder: RCRAInfo Account Policies

- Every person who uses RCRAInfo must have their own single account
- A valid RCRAInfo account must represent the individual user's identity
 - User ID should be individual (e.g., nickname, firstname.lastname, not companyname_ehs or sitename)
 - Should have the individual's email address, not a shared one like admin@company.com
 - Can't be shared between users or passed down when an employee leaves
 - Identity verification is tied to the original creator of the account
- Failure to comply with the terms and conditions is grounds for account deactivation

Account Policies & Site Managers

- EPA recommends that each site maintain redundant users with Site Manager level access.
 - Without redundant Site Managers, you could be left without the ability to add new users
 - The e-Manifest Program has updated the Site Manager Fact Sheet

Proposed Third Rule Summary

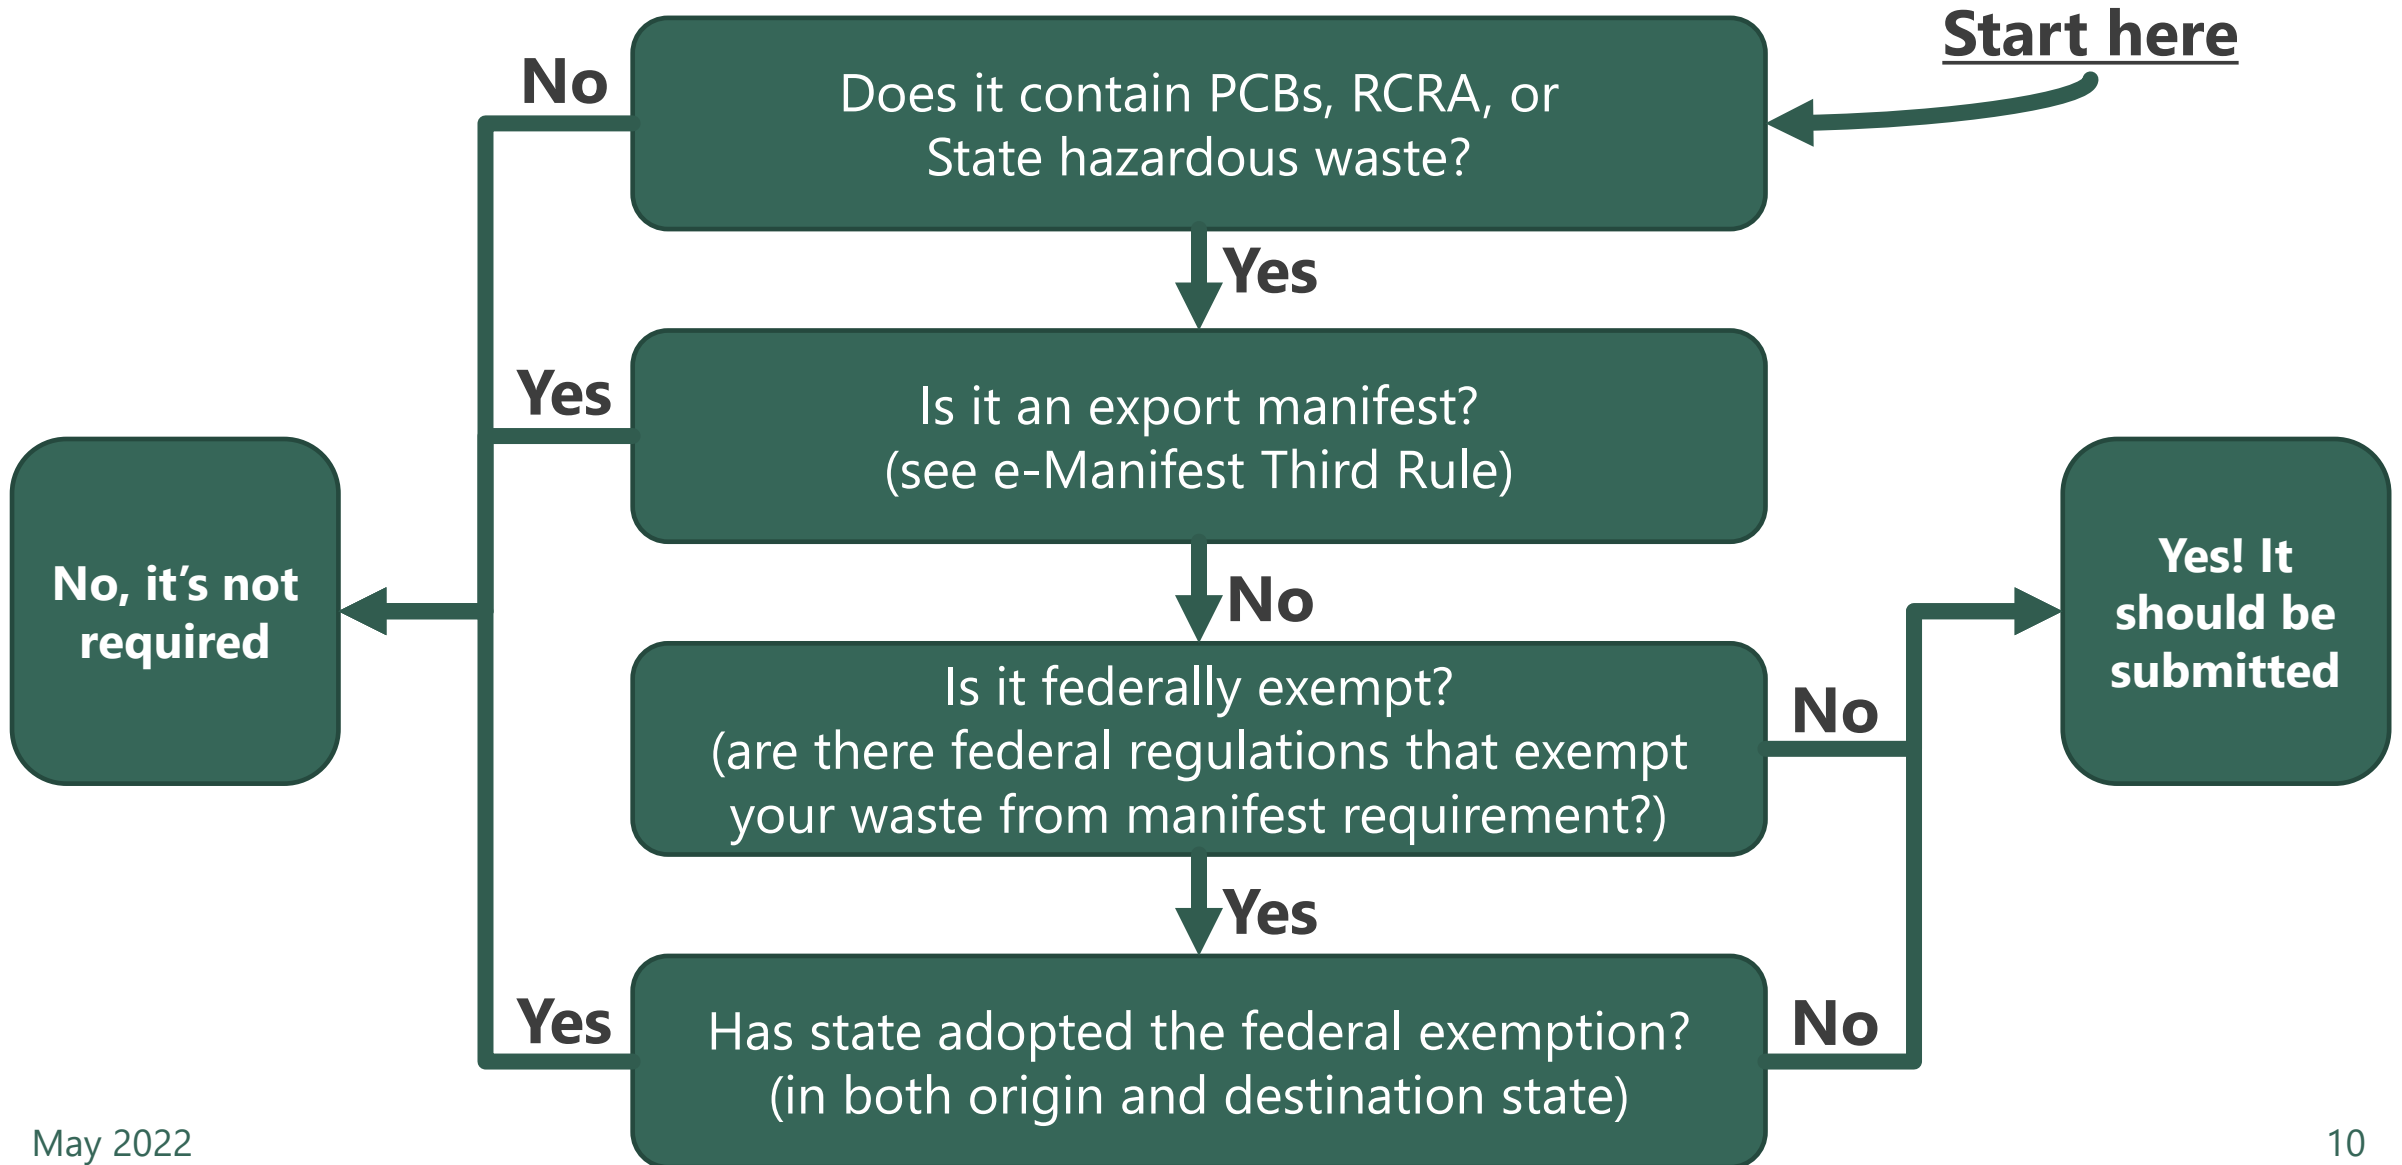

- On 4/1/2022 EPA published a proposed rule (the “Third Rule”) that proposes regulatory changes to:
 - Incorporates export manifests, Exception, Discrepancy, and Unmanifested Waste Reports into e-Manifest system
 - Revise the manifest forms so data for import and export shipments can be recorded clearly
 - Remove the requirement for TSDFs and other receiving facilities to mail paper copies of manifests to unregistered generators
 - Make technical and conforming revisions, including the PCB manifest regulations under TSCA

Proposed Third Rule: Comment Period Extended

e-Manifest

- EPA is extending the comment period for an additional 61 days
 - EPA has received at least one request for additional time to develop and submit comments on the proposal
 - Public comments are now being accepted until August 1st, 2022, in the Federal Register under docket number EPA-HQ-OLEM-2021-0609
